OWI

While on bike patrol, an officer saw a partially empty beer can being thrown from a vehicle behind the Micon Theater. Contact was made with the male driver and male passenger. The driver had another sealed beer can in the cup holder, and signs of intoxication. A small plastic container of marijuana was seen in the center console of the vehicle. SFST's were conducted and impairment was observed. During a search of the vehicle a suspected THC vape cartridge was located and a metal smoking pipe was located. The driver was arrested for OWI 3rd, Possession of THC, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. The passenger was referred for Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

Drug Abuse

Caller reported a male subject was going through his garage. Items from the garage were located in the subject's room. Marijuana was observed in plain view. A search of their residence and vehicle was conducted. Parties were referred for Criminal Trespass to Dwelling, Possession of Methamphetamine and Possession of THC.

Check Vehicle

Officer was called to Superior St for the report of a vehicle with loud exhaust in the area. The officer arrived and contacted the complainant who stated the vehicle has a very loud exhaust and will intentionally drive past their residence causing the exhaust to backfire. While speaking with the complainant, the officer observed the vehicle driving eastbound on Elm St. The vehicle revved up and heard the vehicle backfire. The owner of the vehicle had been previously warned for the same thing. Citations for loud exhaust, exhibition driving, and loud and excessive noise were issued.
