Dog Bite

Caller reported a black/white dog ran from a property and bit her on the back thigh when she was near her vehicle outside of the apartment complex. Officers contacted the owner who advised her fence needs repair and the dog pushed its way out. The Animal Bite Quarantine Order was completed and issued to the dog owner. The caller sought medical attention for her injury and afterwards, provided images of her bite.

Misc. Complaint

Officers followed up on a complaint that a tavern was serving alcohol without a licensed bartender on site. Neither employee on site had a bartender's license. Phone contact was made with owner who was made aware of the issue and had no bartenders that could come in. The bar was shut down due to not having a licensed bartender on scene. The liquor license was up to date and in accordance.

Hit and Run

Two vehicles were parked on the west side of Kwik trip. One vehicle backed into the other and then left the area. Video footage was being obtained from Kwik Trip. Officers were able to identify and contact with the driver of the striking vehicle who admitted to driving to Kwik Trip. He stated he believed he hit a curb and left the scene. Citations for Operating After Revocation, Failure to install Ignition Interlock Device, Failure to notify Police of accident, hit and run on an occupied vehicle, and no insurance was issued.
