Drug Abuse

Traffic Stop on W Willow St / Superior St with a female and a male subject for defective brake lamps. The female gave a false name for the male who was discovered to have an active DOC warrant. She had a meth pipe in her pocket. He was taken into custody for his DOC warrant. A search of his property yielded illicit substances. She was arrested for Obstruction, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and Possession of Methamphetamine. He was arrested for the DOC warrant, Resisting, Possession with Intent Methamphetamine, Possession of THC 2nd, and Possession of a Controlled Substance.

Check Person

While conducting traffic enforcement, an officer observed a vehicle drive down to the City Shops Boat Landing area. The officer knew this vehicle and who it belonged to and that he had been warned on staying overnight at that location as well sleeping in his truck camper at boat landings within Chippewa County. Officer made contact with the vehicle and the operator, the driver who claimed he was only staying in that location for a short time and would be on his way. The officer advised him he had already been warned multiple times for staying overnight at that location. He stated would not stay overnight at that location.

Animal Call

Report of a deer had busted through a window at the Romeis Millstream Apartments and ran through the apartment and left the building by busting out another one. Officers were unable to respond as they were diverted to a pending domestic emergency call.
